Next Rehearsal: Wednesday June 10 5:00 PM

Crunch Time!

It's the third quarter of the championship game. Late in the second period of Game 6 of the Stanley Cup Final. Bottom of the 7th inning of Game 7 of the World Series.

In other words, we're not down to our last few minutes yet, but it's close. We have today's rehearsal and Wednesday's to get everything right. After that is Tech Week, where we turn on the lights and sound and polish it up.

Saturday's rehearsal showed us that we're not remembering the things we should be.

From here on out, the word is focus. Focus on your character, your lines, the lyrics, when to sing, when not to sing, your steps, your placement, and your entrances and exits. Study your book and your notes.

We will finish strong.

Reminders

Costumes: Shirts, khaki / tan shorts, skorts, capris or pants, soft light shoes (no clunky sneakers!), ankle socks. Start wearing your show shoes tonight.

Hair: Out of your eyes, so we can see your face. Girls: ponytails, pigtails, hairbands, barrettes; Guys: parted and combed back, slicked if necessary.

Complimentary tickets ("comps") will be available for those in the company. Details will come later. Cathi Rhodes is putting things together.

Stage Crew

We're still looking for people to work backstage – one or two responsible teenagers and parents. Benefits: free admission and hanging out with some cool kids! Parents will also be given the opportunity to see one show from the house.

Ushers

Also looking for a total of 9 ushers for the shows. Benefits: free admission. Must be responsible, courteous, and somewhat familiar with the theater's seat numbering system.

There will be no newsletter published on Wednesday June 10. The next issue will be on Monday June 15.
